

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

POWERS

Erasmus+ Jean Monnet Network
Peace, War and the World in European Security Challenges

International Spring School

International Security, Human Security, and the EU Global Strategy: Regional Strategies and Different Perspectives from Europe, Middle East, and Russia

Enna
April 26-29, 2022

Wednesday, April 27

Venue: Faculty of Law and Economics, Auditorium Napoleone Colajanni

8.30	Registration of participants
9.00	INTRODUCTORY REMARKS Prof. Giovanni Puglisi – Rector of Kore University Prof. Raffaele Scuderi – Dean of the Faculty of Law and Economics Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi – Academic coordinator of Kore Research Unit of the POWERS Network and Convenor of the International Spring School
9.45	OPENING SESSION The EU in the wider world: regionalisms, strategies, confrontations Chair: Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi – Kore University The EU and the promotion of democracy through interregional relations Giovanni Finizio – Assistant Professor, University of Turin How to reduce the trend to Islamism? Some Muslim voices for an alternative to estrangements between Muslim migrants and the German culture Martin Tamcke – Professor Georg-August-Universität Göttingen
11.15	Coffee-Break
11.45	FIRST SESSION Rule of law, democracy, and authoritarianism Chair: Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi – Kore University Is there an international rule of law? Lucia Corso – Associate Professor, Kore University An EU mechanism on democracy, the rule of law and fundamental rights Antonella Galletti – Teacher of Law, Kore University Impact of COVID-19 on the move towards authoritarianism and its implications on security Muge Aknur – Associate Professor, Dokuz Eylül University

13.00	Lunchtime
14.30	SECOND SESSION Armed conflicts, legal rules, and political confrontations Chair: Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi – Kore University ‘We won’t exchange human rights for gas’: Where is R2P in Ukraine? Between political limits and legal justifications Carmen Márquez-Carrasco – Professor, University of Seville Cyber warfare and applicability of international humanitarian law Laura Garay Gómez – Ph.D. student, University of Seville
15.45	Coffee-Break
16.15	THIRD SESSION Security issues on energy, migration, and food Chair: Prof. Lucia Corso – Kore University Energy Security in the Middle East: the view from Turkey Gul Kurtoglu Eskisar – Professor, Dokuz Eylül University Migration as a threat: the concept of securitization Yaroslavna Saraykina – Ph.D. student, Sciences Po Bordeaux Promoting human rights and dignity through food security in Morocco Antonino Finocchiaro – Ph.D. student, Kore University
17.30	Closure of the day

Thursday, April 28

Venue: Faculty of Law and Economics, Auditorium Napoleone Colajanni

9.30	FIRST SESSION Women and international justice as drivers of security The UN Women, Peace and Security agenda: pillars, inclusion and the unyielding role of women Chiara Iachetta – Single cycle degree in Law student, Kore University Fostering women’s rights in Afghanistan: is there a credible way forward? Roberta Carcò – Single cycle degree in Law student, Kore University Pursuing justice or peace and security at the International Criminal Court? The legal politics of the Article 16 of the Rome Statute Anna Maria Cassarà – Single cycle degree in Law student, Kore University
10.45	Coffee-Break
11.15	SECOND SESSION Mass atrocity crimes and human trafficking as drivers of insecurity Providing security by preventing mass atrocity crimes: the UN Office on Genocide Prevention and the Responsibility to protect Chiara Di Blanca Bonasera & Sofia La Mendola Single cycle degree in Law students, Kore University Providing security by preventing mass atrocity crimes: the European ‘Genocide Network’ Aurelia Altamore & Gabriella Miraglia & Miriam Piscopo Single cycle degree in Law students, Kore University Fighting against human trafficking at EU level Vincenza Paladino Single cycle degree in Law student, Kore University Human trafficking and transnational organized crime Silvia Jelo di Lentini – University of Miami School of Law Alumna
13.00	Lunchtime

14.30	THIRD SESSION Trade, security, and justice Chair: Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi – Kore University Piracy: a threat to sea security and world maritime trade Francesca Bruno & Riccardo Persio – Ph.D. students, Kore University Antitrust and democracy Riccardo Samperi – Ph.D. student, Kore University The European Warrant of Arrest and the principle ‘nullum crimen, nulla poena sine lege’ Vincenzo Telaro – Ph.D. student, University of Catania
15.45	Coffee-Break
16.15	FOURTH SESSION Security issues in Africa and Middle East Chair: Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi – Kore University The efficacy of international actors on the abolition of the death penalty in South Africa and Botswana Zühal Ünalp Çepel (Assistant Professor, Dokuz Eylül University) & Damla Kizilkoca (Master’s degree in International Relations student, Dokuz Eylül University) Multiple dimensions of security: impact analysis of coltan and cobalt mining industry in the DRC through the lens of the Just Ecological Transition Federico Jelo di Lentini – Ph.D. student, University of Catania Turkey’s foreign policy towards the Kurdistan Regional Government: ups and downs (2003-2017) Zyad Muhammad Nuri – Assistant Lecturer, University of Charmo
17.30	Closure of the day

Friday, April 29

Venue: Faculty of Law and Economics, Auditorium CLIK

9.15	FINAL SESSION Migration between securitization and integration Chair: Prof. Paolo Bargiacchi & Prof. María José Prados Velasco, University of Seville The migration crisis as a fault line in the EU: the EU Court of Justice decisions regarding the Visegrad States Sevgi Çilingir – Associate Professor, Dokuz Eylül University Sustainable and ethical investments in Northern Africa as a way to mitigate the impact of migrations on Italy and the European Union Giuseppe Macca (Ph.D. student, Kore University) & Tommaso Pochi (Teaching assistant, LUISS University) Securitization of migration in France from the perspective of social constructivism: an evaluation of the National Front Party Samet Kayar – Master’s degree in European Union student, Dokuz Eylül University
10.45	Coffee-Break
11.15	‘CONFERENCE ON THE FUTURE OF AFGHANISTAN’ A diplomacy simulation Kore University students present the outcome of the diplomacy simulation on the future of Afghanistan held in parallel during the International Spring School
12.15	CLOSING REMARKS OF THE SPRING SCHOOL
12.30	Closure of the International Spring School